

LEARN TO WRITE PLAYS!

Writing a great play isn't all that difficult once you've learnt the basic structure of a stage play. Learn how to use the performance space effectively, write convincing dialogue and a story that will keep the audience on the edge of their seats. This workshop will guide you through the steps with plenty of writing exercises to get you inspired. You'll also learn about character analysis, stereotyping, story comprehension and how to write with a budget in mind. The workshop will also touch on writing stage directions, props and costumes, make-up, lighting, sound and set design.

Contact Jacquelin for more information on customising a workshop to suit your circumstances.

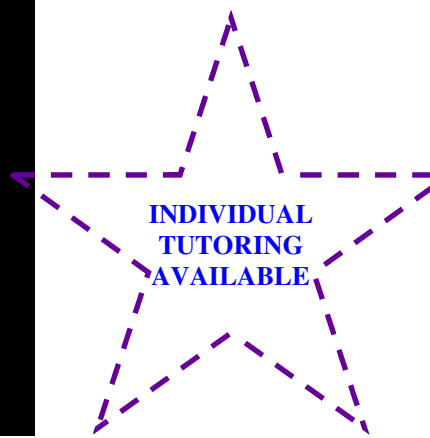

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Learn the basics of play writing
- How to create interesting characters
- Learning the art of writing dialogue
- Planning a great plot
- Setting up the performance space
- Writing with your audience in mind
- Get into the actors seat
- Writing exercises to get you inspired

ABOUT YOUR TUTOR

Jacquelin is the author of the Lights, Camera, Action series and various children's stageplays. Over the past 20 years, she has worked in film and television, gaining experience in acting, directing, producing and casting. She has taught drama to students aged between 8 to 18 years and has written, produced and directed stage plays and short films, and won various awards.

FOR BOOKINGS & ENQUIRIES
 Jacquelin Melilli
 Phone: 07 55026462
 Mobile: 0405 007075
 Email: drama@jacquelinmelilli.com
 Website: www.jacquelinmelilli.com